with

CECILIA GONZALEZ and SOMER SURGIT

CECILIA GONZALEZ

Well respected by the tango community in Buenos Aires, Cecilia is an exceptional dancer who has worked with the most renowned Argentine dancers of her generation since 1995. She combines strong movements with wise softness getting, without effort, the most powerful synthesis. The technical precision, fluidity of her movements and notable capacity of improvisation characterize her dance. Cecilia shares her extensive knowledge and passion with her students. She is a very appreciated and requested tango teacher and has been continually invited to give workshops and participate in festivals around the world. Since its inception in 1999, she has been a member of the teaching faculty of the Argentine International Tango Congress (C.I.T.A) held annually in Buenos Aires.

SOMER SURGIT

He is a uniquely experienced dancer who embodies musicality, elegance, and creativity in his dance. Recognized as a singular interpreter New Generation Tango, he emphasizes individuality, deep connection, and genuine expression, which inform his richly textured, artistic improvisation of Argentine tango. Somer stresses core technique and fundamentals in a fluid and naturally elegant style. With warmth, interpersonal skills, and sensitivity he enables his students to advance quickly and consistently. Somer's performances and classes have captivated students and onlookers alike across the United States, Canada, Europe, and Asia. His musical knowledge has allowed musicalized serve as international events.
